

Phillip Zamora

May 5, 1948 - March 24, 2020

Phillip Zamora, 71, of Tehachapi, California, passed away on Tuesday, March 24, 2020 at his home with loving family by his side. He was born on May 5, 1948 in Jarales, New Mexico to Ernesto and Carmelita Zamora.

A skilled craftsman, Phil was a certified welder for 39 years. He began learning his trade in 1968 when he served in the United States Army. He continued to gain experience while he served in the National Guard, and later welded for California State University, Long Beach.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, traveling to Mammoth Lakes and Lake Havasu, visiting his family and friends near and far, and watching western movies. In his spare time, he restored vehicles and did wood working. There was nothing he couldn't do. He was one talented man.

Phil is survived by his wife of 30 years, Terry Zamora; daughter, Jennifer Zamora; his four-legged son, Jack; brother, Jake Zamora; sisters, Edwina Baca and Alice Zamora; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the care of Wood Family Funeral Service in Tehachapi, California. Phil was privately laid to rest at Tehachapi Public Cemetery – Eastside in Tehachapi, California.

“ We were truly sorry to hear of Phil's passing. He had suffered so much recently that we hope his family can take comfort knowing that he is no longer in pain.

Prior to his move to Tehachapi, Phil was our neighbor. We will miss his generosity and sense of humor and above all his willingness to help anybody when asked.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Terry, Jennifer, (and his four legged buddy, Jack) at this time.

“ I will always remember our long nightly conversations because neither one of us could sleep❤️. Uncle Phillip would talk to me about anything About my Grandma and Grandpa. He always had good jokes. He always had his faith in the Lord even if we were not from the same religion he didn't care he would always tell me “Mija never loose your faith in the Lord” he would say he didn't have grandkids I would say are you kidding you have my kids to have your own! I will miss you Uncle Phillip but know you are home now, no longer in pain and would have taken mine if you could have! You did take my secrets though. Te Amo Tío ❤️🙏

“ It's hard to find the words to say how much i will miss my little brother Phil. I remember this blond little boy with a fighting spirit. He grew up to be a good son, father, husband and brother. He had so much talent, there was nothing that he could not built with his hands. From restoring old cars, making beautiful things out of wood, restoring old furniture and upholstery. I will miss out long talks on the phone reminiscing about the past. Until we meet again, rest in peace. Love you brother
